

TUFTS INSTITUTE FOR HUMAN-ANIMAL INTERACTION
SPRING 2017 EVENING
LECTURE SERIES

02/28

Debra Gibbs, Animal-Assisted Programs Coordinator
"Pet Therapy' 101: The Basics of Animal-Assisted Interventions"

03/28

Dr. Megan Mueller, Associate Director
"Horses and Humans: Understanding our Relationships with our Hooved Companions"

04/25

Dr. Deborah Linder, Associate Director
"The Role of Therapy Animals in Hospitals and Reading Programs"

05/16

Dr. Lisa Freeman, Director
"People and Their Pets: More Alike Than You Think"

BARNUM HALL: ROOM 104
7:00PM

Our mission is to promote the health, strengths, and well-being of humans and animals through transdisciplinary partnerships that foster innovative research, education, and service programs in human-animal interaction.

hai.tufts.edu